Chapter 1 by Michelle Estes

It was a cold and wet day. The sun never did come out to play. Come to think of it, it hadn't been out to play for quite a while. And wow now that I really think about it, it stopped shining all together after they arrived. Who are they you ask? I can't say. I promised my mom I wouldn't. And since she died protecting me from them, I can't break my word. But I digress. Let me go back to that time when it all began.

It was a cold wet day then too. Mom and I were headed to the store to buy some groceries. When all of the sudden a blast of wind stronger than that of a hurricane came out of no wheres....
